Annenberg School of Nursing Vocational Nursing Program

The Test of Essential Academic Skills (TEAS) is a pre-entry exam used to evaluate the academic preparedness of students entering the vocational nursing program. Minimum score required is “proficient”. TEAS exam results are valid for one (1) year. Previously taken TEAS exams, within one year, may be accepted if the admission results (official transcript) from ATI are sent directly to ASN. If exam is not passed on the first attempt, one retake is allowed.

STUDY MATERIAL AVAILABLE:

- Atitesting.com
- Amazon.com
- Walmart.com
- BarnesandNoble.com
- Ebay.com
- iTunes.Apple.com
- Mometrix.com
- www.test-guide.com is a free website which contains practice exam questions.

ASN highly suggests individuals obtain study material and allot adequate study time for the TEAS preparation. Practice exams should be completed prior to the TEAS examination date to determine status for further review.
